FURNITURE,
Carpets, and Curtains.

No more holidays now until Christmas. Nothing more to interfere with business. For ourselves, we are going to make things hum, if there is any hum to be made.

We have the stock to command big patronage. If people want anything in our lines, there is no need to go beyond our stores. There are other stores, but there is no store like ours, there are other stocks, but there is no stock like ours. This is as true as preaching.

Such a grouping of bright things in Furniture you never saw before; such pretty designs in Carpets are rarely seen; such a collection of Curtains is a delight to look upon. Best of all, quality is best, price the lowest.

Extravagant ideas prevail for the month before Christmas. A great deal of money is wasted in buying useless Christmas tokens. Invest some of your spare cash in serviceable gifts—such as our stock suggests in abundant variety. Either Cash or Credit.
